The dispute seems to have been the subject of enquiry so far back as 1879 when the Nugnai Assistant Commr, after recording the evidence of the contending parties, ordered as follows: —

" It is apparent that all the pet. Bedar Ramiah entitled to is to decorate and not to worship the utsava moorti on the Car and Yugadi festivals"

The Bedars chiefly rely on the undermentioned documents: —

i. Barabalutty Register of 1865; in which they are mentioned as Pujaris ii. Inam Settlement Register, in which it is stated that the Inam lands of the Temple are in the holding of their ancestors Puttiah, Ramiah and others.

The Uda marudi Kanganathaswami Temple is on a hill. It seems to have a large number of devotees. As it is on a hill it may be assumed in the absence that the Brahmin Pujari does not always reside and that in his absence the Bedar worships the Utsava idol & the Utsava idol would perform Mangalarati and receive Kanike from devotees.

Whatever was actually the case when disputes arose the decision of the Magistrate Mr. B.G. Krishna Iyengar was in 1879 that the Brahmins were entitled to Worship with Metal Vigraha as Utsava idol. Things seems to have gone on for an appreciable enough though perhaps the ill-feeling may have continued.

In the year 1903 when the Utsava idol was kept in the Village in the Hanumanta Devasa Temple at the request of the devotees some jewels are reported to have been lost. Hal was another subject for ill-feeling.

(Case A)
Wilson's report 612 Dy 20.11.1904)

Next year the Vakivatdar wanted to allow the Utsava idol to be taken and kept in the Village. The opposite party then complained to the Govt. and the Local Officers. The matter was enquired into and the Collr. Mr. M.S. Narayen Rao in Oct. 1905 passed an order in accordance with an agreement entered into by the parties on his previous. One of the terms of this agreement was that the Utsava idol should be kept in the Navaranga Mantap of the Temple. This order was not carried out for some time on the ground that the Mantap was not a place of security. It appears to have since been given effect to; the door of the Mantap being locked in the absence of the pujari. The devotees now complain of the locking.

The Dy Comr. from whom a report was called for says that the order of 1879 may be confirmed and adds that on receipt of final orders he will submit proposals for the appointment of Dharmadarsis.

There is no question of finance right now, and it is therefore not necessary to say anything about the order of 1879.

There is no complaint in fact about working the Navanagar Mahaj; and even if there should be mention thing in the petn no orders are called for as the Dy Comr has not himself decided the matter

Of the four petns presented to Govt (Serials 1, 3, 5 & 6) the last two call for orders. The first is about the appointment of Dharmadarsis.

The second is the petition of the Brahmins referred to above. It has been presented four years after the date of the Dy Comrs order which itself is based on an agreement entered into between the parties. In the very nature by brahmans under Agama religious rules.

In the year 1878 the Vokkaliga Bedar caste who are sweepers of the temple were refused to touch the God and to handle procession idols. From time immemorial up to that year, the procession idols were being kept in the inner apartment (ಗರ್ಭಗುಡಿ).

In that year the bedar sweepers with Oppa Timmanna Kamate complained to the Deputy Commissioner that the idol should be kept outside to give facility to them to touch. But their attempt failed. Accordingly the old practice is continued till the year 1905.

In that year the same caste people have again complained to grant their request, viz; to order the procession idol (వెంకటేశ్వర) to be kept in Nawaraya mandal to allow them to build and worship the God dependently without a brahmen Archak.

The enclosed attested copy of the order has been issued by the Dept by Commissioner stating that the procession idol should be kept in other than Siva and Vaishnava temples and should be carried out to be offered flowers by brahmin Poojari.

The portion of the order that the idols should be kept in Nawaraya outside the inner apartment is against the Agamic practice and I am, therefore, unable to grant the request and Opinion is that the doors of Navaranga kept opened to give them opportunities to touch the God and carry on worship independently themselves when Votaries attend.

Throughout the Province and in Southern India also in every temple festival idols during procession Mantras recited and secured in principal inner compartment, which is not known to your honour.

While as that portion of the order is the step by commissioner with reference to the exhibition of idols, the entrance of the temple is closed and opened to long
the time practice

We never ... Swamy and Government authorities, to issue orders to keep the Navaranga room unlocked. All the Volarei of the temple. (Brahmans + non brahmans) take objection to this request of these two classes.

The present complements are only the minority of Kadar people of the village who are also servants of the temple. If the request of these people are complied with to the temple will be followed and all the Volarei will have to be servants in the temple. Creating unemployment

Sir,

Adverting to your official memorandum nos 849 & 1461 dated 21st September 1907. 67-09-2 & 67-09-4 and 11th December 1909 respectively regarding the mismanagement of the affairs of the temple of Sri Udbhavar adi Ranganatha-Devaru at Devarahalli in the Chennagiri Taluk, I have the honour to state that the above institution is under muzrai management and is endowed with the marginally noted Inam lands.

Extent. a 138-35, 10, Devarahalli
Ramagondana-halli - 15-31, 15
Chikka von 8-27 9-Hirenda 10-27 - 9.

2 Petitioners Ramiah and others of Bedar caste contend that the right to worship the mula vigraha and utchava-Idol Vests in them and in proof of this contention they rely on the following documents.

(1) Barabaloothy Register of 1865 in which they are mentioned as Pujaries. (Flag 3 stated that the Inam lands of the temple are Hag y) in the holding of their ancestors Puttayya, Ramiah & others

3. owing to ill will between themselves and the Nadiga, their right in regard to the Pujaridikh was trenched upon and in proof thereof they refer to the decision of the Munsif Assistant Commissioner Contained Hag x) in order no. 763 of 1879, whereby the petitioners right has been restricted only to decorating the idol at navaranga mantapam — during the Yugadi and car festivals.
4 On the other hand the Brahmins contend that Ramiah & others (Bedars) are mere — Sweepers who wear the Namam (tiruman) mark on their foreheads and claim the right to worship both the Vigrahas. In support to this Contention they urge (1) that the deity Mulavigraha has been installed according to the Pancharatra Agama — rituals and that non-brahmins have no — right whatever to worship either the mula--Vigraha or the utsava murthi and that the Hag w) wording in the Jusdik Patti prepared in the year 1864 (Rakthakshi) to the effect that the Brahmins who worship the deity get 18 Varahas, clearly indicates that the Archakshik of the temple is to be a Brahmin and not a Bedar.

5. It appears to me that when passing the order of 1879, due Consideration would have been given to the records referred to above & I would therefore recommend that the same be confirmed.

6. On receipt of final orders on this point recommendation will be made regarding the nomination of Dharmadarsis who will be selected from both the Communities

7. The entire Canarese Correspondence connected with the above is herewith submitted for reference and favour of kind return.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

It would appear that in 1852, the Supdt. of Nagpur issued an order Circular no. 470/17th Nov., calling upon the amildar to prepare a return of Choramanyams which have not been included in the previous Chora returns, and warning that those inams which are not registered in that Return will not be allowed. In accordance with this order, a return was prepared (vide col: 14) in which this Inam was entered for the first time. In order no. 453/553 of in 1854, the Supdt: says that the uncollected portion of the assessment on the said Choramanyam should be in abeyance, pending further orders from the Chief Commr. It does not appear that any further orders on the subject were received.

I think that the Spirit of the Supdt's: Circular above quoted is unquestionably to treat these Inams in the same manner as the previously recorded Chora Inams. To be confirmed, so long as service is performed, subject to Present Jodi 1-1-0
